3. British Guiana

25X1

In what may be a dress rehearsal for a future violence campaign, the number of terrorist incidents reported during the first two weeks of November greatly exceeded that reported in the last half of October. Intimidation was used against East Indians who did not participate in Jagan's so far unsuccessful colony-wide sugar worker strike, and the number of racial incidents increased. On balance, it appears that more East Indians, followers of Cheddi Jagan, are attacking Negroes, who are loyal to Prime Minister Burnham, than vice versa.

4. Colombia

Army units continued pressure on guerrilla bands in south central Colombia, making few contacts but gradually diminishing the guerrillas' capability to resist.

7. Venezuela

The Communist-dominated Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN) conducted a series of minor operations in Western Venezuela during the past week, thus demonstrating that it still has the ability to disrupt order in spite of recent successes by the government. There seems to have been a tendency for government officials to overestimate the damage their operations have done to the FALN and to underestimate the FALN's reserve strength.
